Saints of the Week:

26th October: Saints Chad and Cedd Chad. Both were educated at Lindisfarne under Aidan. Cedd was the founder of many monasteries. He was sent as a bishop to evangelise the East Saxons and died of the plague in 664 at his monastery in Lastingham, Yorkshire. Chad was abbot of Lastingham and then sent as bishop to Mercia where he founded the see of Lichfield. Holiness of life, outstanding humility and dedication to preaching the Gospel are attributed to Chad who died at Lichfield in 672.

28th October: Saints Simon and Jude. Simon, called either the Canaanite or the Zealot, disappears after Pentecost. One Eastern source gives Edessa as the place of his death, but Western tradition says that he first preached in Egypt and then joined Jude. They went together to Persia where they suffered martyrdom. Jude is usually identified as the author of the Epistle of Jude.
