Baby Loss Awareness Week

This is a time for bereaved parents, and their families and friends to remember the lives of their babies. The tragedy of baby loss affects 1 in 4 pregnancies in the UK. You can learn more by discovering the link on the internet. All human life is sacred and has to be cherished by us all.

Today we celebrate the third Synod Sunday in the Archdiocese. Originally this was to be the weekend of our Synod 2020 event but the Covid-19 pandemic means this will now take place in June 2021.

Today the summary proposals on our four Synod Themes will be published which you will find on the Synod Website. Over the coming weeks our local Synod Members will be inviting your responses to these proposals as we continue to discern the Church God is calling us to be. Please visit the website, read the summary proposals, and prayerfully reflect on them.

Pope Francis called for the laity to “take a step forward” in carrying out the Church’s mission of evangelisation in a preface to a book written by an Italian bishop.

“The time is now. The mission of the laity is not a privilege of a few and it involves total dedication,” Pope Francis wrote in the foreword to the recently published book “Symphony of Ministries: A renewed presence of laity in the Church,” by Bishop Fabio Fabene.

“The laity themselves are asked to be joyful in self-giving and prayer, to grow and to operate within the Christian community to share and support their journey, the mutual exchange of gifts aroused by the Holy Spirit,” the pope said. Pope Francis stressed the importance of “the co-responsibility of the laity in the building up of the Church,” as highlighted in St. John Paul II’s 1988 exhortation “Christifideles laici.”

An archbishop thanked the government on Monday for awarding a “lifeline” grant to Catholic churches in England. Archbishop George Stack, chairman of the English and Welsh bishops’ patrimony committee, said that the money would offer new hope to congregations struggling to raise funds amid the pandemic. “We are hugely grateful for this magnificent award. With our churches closed during lockdown, many planned repair projects were unable to go ahead. Other churches have simply not had the resources to carry out much-needed repairs,” said Stack, the archbishop of Cardiff.

The Bishops’ Conference of England and Wales was one of 445 organizations named on 9 October as qualifying for support from the government’s £2 billion fund to help the arts, culture, and heritage sectors during the coronavirus crisis. The funds will not only allow churches to complete essential repairs, but also to remain open for their congregations and other visitors.
