Ramsey. First Communion for four of our young parishioners will be taking place during Mass on Sunday 26th June.

Peel . Thanks to all those who support Missio by holding a Red Box. If you would like to have your box emptied please bring it to church and give it to Corrie. Your box will be emptied and returned to you. If you are not a Red Box holder and would like to support Missio please take a box from the table in the Narthex. The Mission Today Spring booklets, also on the table, are available and provide an interesting read. More information is also available on missio.org.uk .

Catholic News Bites

22,000 young people pray for peace at Catholic festival in Poland

Twenty-two thousand young people from Poland and Ukraine attended the 26th Lednica 2000 meeting on the eve of Pentecost. Pope Francis sent a message to participants ahead of the youth festival on 4 June. Speaking at his general audience on 1 June, the pope said: “Today we begin the month dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, source of love and peace.” “Open yourselves to this love and take it ‘to the ends of the earth,’ witnessing to the goodness and mercy that flow from the Heart of Jesus.” The annual gathering at Lednickie Fields in west-central Poland has taken place since 1997. The Dominican priest Father Jan Góra, who founded the meetings, died in 2015. Father Tomasz Nowak, O.P., the pastor of this year’s meeting, said: “The phenomenon of Lednica lies in the fact that there is everything a young person may need — enthusiasm, joy, dancing, and singing, but at the same time prayer, Mass, Confession.” “Young people are looking for love and truth, which are not temporary and illusory, but which are tried and tested and which can be relied on for eternity.” Due to the ongoing war in Ukraine, organisers invited refugees to the gathering this year.

Pope Francis explained how to recognise the Holy Spirit’s voice

Speaking from a wheelchair in front of the main altar of St. Peter’s Basilica, the pope provided several examples of how to recognise the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, who “at every crossroads in our lives suggests to us the best path to follow.” “The Holy Spirit will never tell you that on your journey everything is going just fine. ... No, he corrects you; he makes you weep for your sins; he pushes you to change, to fight against your lies and deceptions, even when that calls for hard work, interior struggle and sacrifice,” Pope Francis said in his recent. “Whereas the evil spirit, on the contrary, pushes you to always do what you think and you find pleasing. He makes you think that you have the right to use your freedom any way you want. Then, once you are left feeling empty inside – it is bad, this feeling of emptiness inside, many of us have felt it – and when you are left feeling empty inside, he blames you, becomes the accuser, and throws you down, destroys you.”

“The Holy Spirit, correcting you along the way, never leaves you lying on the ground, never. He takes you by the hand, comforts you and constantly encourages you,” he added.
