The Thie Dy Vea - Retreat House Peel

Thie Dy Vea, Ballawattleworth House, Tynwald Road, Peel. welcome@retreathouse.im

Sunday 21st May 2.30 – 4.30 p.m. | A lifelong journey: a mini-pilgrimage

Pilgrimage is an ancient practice, an opportunity to step aside from daily routines and create space for new discoveries about yourself and God. We're offering this mini-pilgrimage in the walled garden at Thie dy Vea. Come by yourself, or with a friend, and join in with this journey that will create a little space for you to reflect and wonder. Refreshments will be available. We'll bring the event to a close with a shared time of worship.

Parking is limited at Thie dy Vea. On this occasion we'd like to reserve it for people with limited mobility. So if you're travelling to Peel by car please could you park in the town? Please come suitably dressed for the weather.

Thursday 25th May, 7.30 – 9.00 p.m. | Armchair Pilgrimage

Not everyone who would like to go on a keeills walk can manage it, for a variety of reasons. So why not join us on this virtual keeills walk from the comfort of the big lounge at Thie dy Vea? We'll be journeying from Kirk Michael to Cabbal Pheric, engaging with ancient carved crosses, the old railway line, a waterfall, and the sights, smells and sounds of the countryside in May.

Places are limited and booking in advance is essential. Refreshments will be provided. The ground floor of Thie dy Vea is fully accessible and an accessible bathroom will be available.
