This Month's Liturgy: September 2025

In the midst of this month, the Liturgy has the Feast of the Exaltation (or finding) of the Holy Cross which falls by date (14th) on a Sunday in Ordinary Time. While historically it commemorates the discovery by Bishop Macarios or by Helena, Mother of the Emperor Constantine, of the relics of the true cross in Jerusalem and the dedication of the Church of the Holy Sepulchre in Jerusalem in the year 335, the centrality of the Cross and Resurrection is obviously highlighted - and this is why it is allowed to stand in the Liturgical Calendar on a Sunday, the day of Resurrection.

In the Byzantine tradition this is named as a celebration of 'the precious and life giving Cross' and this perhaps gives it a slightly different 'mood' to the commemoration which is Good Friday.

Given the current situation in which our Christian brothers and sisters find themselves in Jerusalem and in the Holy Lands, it would be good to pray for them on this Sunday and perhaps the words of Saint Francis of Assisi prayed before the Crucifix in the church of San Damiano may help us:

*Most High glorious God, enlighten the darkness of my heart.
Grant me an upright faith,
secure hope and perfect charity.
Fill me with understanding and knowledge that I may fulfill your command. Amen.*
