NOVEMBER 2025

In our Catholic Tradition – and indeed in many other cultures - November is a month of remembrance and a month of the Holy Souls: it must be something about the changing of the clocks, the drawing in of the days and the increasing coldness of nature around us which makes us think about the brightness of hope and the security of hearth and home.

Indeed for us November does not begin with the remembrance of the dead (All Souls) but with the proclamation of the victory of the Resurrection in the Holy Ones across the centuries (All Saints). All Saints – or All Hallows as it is sometimes called – is a celebration of light which has victory over darkness and the fulness of Life which makes sense even of physical death itself. All Hallows eve – the day before All Saints – is presented as a night on which ghouls and spirits run amuck precisely because they realise that the power of Light, the power of the Resurrection is stronger than anything they can muster !

Through the month of November, liturgies in our parishes will present us with many opportunities to remember our families and friends who have “gone before us marked with the sign of Faith” - not forgetting , of course the ones who has no one to pray for them’. Our Catholic sense and spirituality is wide enough to embrace those whom we have never met in life but who are very much our brothers and sisters in Christ !

Into your hands, Father of mercies, we commend our brother and sisters in the sure and certain hope that, together with all who have died in Christ, they will rise with him on the last day.

We give you thanks for the blessings which you have bestowed upon them in this life:
they are signs to us of your goodness and of our fellowship with the saints in Christ.

Merciful Lord,
turn toward us and listen to our prayers:
open the gates of paradise to your servants
and help us who remain
to comfort one another with assurances of faith, until we all meet in Christ
and are with you and our brother and sisters for ever.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
