Sunday of the Baptism of our Lord Jesus Christ

Good morning, dear brothers and sisters. It is wonderful to celebrate today the Baptism of our Lord Jesus Christ.

How many of us have ever looked ourselves in the mirror, and had this thought, "If only I was a little better... then I would be truly worthy of love." Maybe you have felt it after making a terrible mistake or when comparing yourself to someone else.

In the Gospel of today, Matthew 3, Jesus is baptised, and a voice declares him beloved. Here is what makes us worthy. Jesus didn't need baptism to be good, but he did it to stand with us, an indication that every one of us is loved as they are.

Recall that Jesus hadn't performed any miracle yet. He hadn't healed anyone or taught a single sermon, yet God was pleased with him. God never said you will be my beloved when you perform great acts. "No, the love was there before any achievement" and perfection.

Do you know that God sees you like that also? Isn't it wonderful?

When you have done something unimaginable that you know is shameful, when you have said something that you regret, when you are overburdened by family problems, your jobs and future, or when you feel that you don't measure up to anything good, remember that you are still His beloved.

The prophet Isaiah tells us that "God's servant brings light to the lost." Acts of the Apostles reminds us that God shows no favouritism. He loves all his creatures irrespective of the fact that their worth is not earned, according to Matthew. It is a gift from God. Jesus's identification with sinners paves the way for all to be welcomed into God's family with Jews and Gentiles alike.

Dear friends, carry this good news and truth with you. When doubt creeps in, stop and whisper to yourself, I am His beloved. Be filled with the love of the Father so that it will radiate to the other.

Remain blessed.

Responsorial Psalm:

The Lord will bless his people with peace.

Gospel Acclamation:

The heavens were opened and the voice of the Father thundered: "This is my beloved Son; listen to him."

Alleluia.

Communion Antiphon:

Behold the One of whom John said I have seen and testified that this is the Son of God.

Jubilee Year 2025: During the year of the Jubilee the parish motto will be, “Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer.” (Rom 12:12)

Annual Holiday: Fr Joseph is away on his annual holiday until 4th February. While Fr. Joseph is away, Father Augustine Ogbonna will attend to all the liturgical needs of the parish, assisted by the Deacons and Brendan O’Friel.

Jubilee Mass: On 1st March 2026, we will be marking the end of our Jubilee year, ‘Pilgrims of Hope.’ Father Joseph has proposed that this will be an interactive Mass in St. Columba, with both our congregations and people invited from other Catholic parishes. The idea is that individuals or groups, particularly from different nationalities, will take part in the readings, hymns, or show or tell us something from their culture, particularly, but not exclusively, with regard to work that has been done on the theme of “Hope.” This may only be a few minutes; for example, reading a letter of thanks, a poem, a song, or a prayer, etc. There are many good things happening in our parishes, such as the Foodbank, Fair Trade, Mary's Meals, SVP, and many, many other ventures. It would be nice for a representative to share the good news. After the Mass, we will be having a faith luncheon. Hopefully, people will bring food from their home countries for everyone to share and enjoy. Please help support this initiative by offering to be involved in whatever way you can. Please contact suemagee@me.com as I will be sorting out a programme over the next month.

Parish Luncheon: This year's Parish luncheon will be held on Sunday, 8th February, at 2 pm at the Falcon Hotel, Port Erin. Numbers are limited to 45. Adult tickets are £24.50 and children's tickets are £13.50. The price is for two courses and includes a contribution towards Fr. Joseph and Fr. Augustine’s meals and a tip. For tickets, please speak to a Social Club Committee member.

Mass Intentions: Mary and James Doyle, Louise Heaney, Ian James Younger, Mary and William Mc Gowan, and Garry Heaney
