The Feast of Christmas Day last year (2025 !) ushered in a whole Season of Christmas Feasts... and on 1st January this year we kept the Feast of the Mother of God and a day of particular prayer for world peace. In the Mass each day we pray for peace in that lovely prayer before the receiving of the Lord in Holy Communion

Deliver us. Lord, we pray for every evil, graciously grant PEACE in our days that by the help of your mercy we may be always free from sin and safe from all distress as we await the blessed hope and the coming of our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Peace is not merely the absence of conflict or violence but is a state of living where we acknowledge the source and origin of all things and entrust ourselves to the providence and care of God the Father knowing that, as Saint Paul says, 'And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose.' (Romans 8:28). It is therefore well suited that the first day of the new calendar year should be dedicated to The Blessed Virgin – she was the one who, embracing the message of the Angel Gabriel, declared herself to be ' the Handmaid of the Lord: be it done to me according to your Word'. (Luke 1: 38) . When Pope Leo was leaving Lebanon a couple of weeks ago at the end of his Apostolic Visit he said

In embracing all of you, I express my aspiration for peace, along with a heartfelt appeal: may the attacks and hostilities cease. We must recognise that armed struggle brings no benefit. While weapons are lethal, negotiation, mediation and dialogue are constructive. Let us all choose peace as a way, and not just as a goal!

What might be our Resolution for this year which opens out before us ? Well to be peace builders, peace makers perhaps not on the world-wide stage of international politics but on the smaller, more homely but none the less fundamental stage of our daily living. Peace goes hand in hand with justice, and justice needs to go hand in hand with mercy and compassion..... good resolutions which can be applied to us all.

Happy January
