Stuff....

Since I left the parish of Holy Name in 2023, my stuff has been stored in different places. The 'essentials' I've had with me, and I'm currently making plans for the remainder to be shipped here to the island. When you're forced to be separated from the clutter that it's so easy to accumulate as you go through life, you realise that you don't really need it. Opening some of the boxes I've had with me has been like Christmas: I've been surprised by the contents that I forgot I owned.

Though it's not for me, I admire the vow of poverty that Religious in our church take as part of their promises. Those who follow me on Facebook (21st Century Priest) know that I encountered on a train to Gatwick a religious Sister from Arundel whose joy was infectious. I'm not suggesting we all get rid of everything we own, but rather that we realise our stuff can weigh us down, as much as bring us joy. A simpler life has its blessings.

Cuppa and a chat

Day for Life

Day for Life will be celebrated next Sunday, 21 June, with the theme "The Wonder of the Child in the Womb." highlighting the sacredness and humanity of life from.

Day for Life is dedicated to raising awareness about the value of human life at every stage, from conception to natural death. It encourages reflection on the dignity of the unborn child and the grief experienced by parents who lose a child before or shortly after birth. The observance also emphasizes the Church's teaching that every child is created, willed, and deeply loved by God from all eternity

A second collection will be taken at all Masses next weekend for Day for Life.

Isle of Man Prison Sunday 2026

Prisoners' Sunday is an opportunity to think about how we, as individuals, as a Church, and as communities, serve our brothers and sisters affected by imprisonment. Prisoners, people with convictions, and their children and families can find themselves on the margins of our society. Yet Jesus challenges us: "I was in prison, and you came to me..."

On the Island, we will mark Prison Sunday on Sunday 21st June at 2.00pm with a service at Jurby Church. All are welcome and refreshments will be served after the service. Come and pray for the needs of men and women who are prisoners, prison staff, victims, survivors and families.

Taize

Next Sunday, 21st June at 6.30pm: Taize Prayer at St James, Dalby. All are welcome. This service is followed by refreshments.

SVP News: Coffee Morning

There will be a Coffee Morning on Saturday, 4th July, (from 11.00am to 1.00pm.) at St Columba's Hall, Port Erin. This is in aid of the St. Vincent de Paul Society in the south of the Island. All welcome.

From Around the World

A 'Round the World Evening' will take place on Thursday 9th July to raise funds for the Isle of Man Lourdes Youth Group. This summer the IOM Lourdes Youth Group, alongside other young people from the Archdiocese, will help care for the sick pilgrims in Lourdes.

The event will take place from 7.00 until 11.00pm in the Manx Legion Club on the Quayside in Douglas. Admission £15. Children under 12 free. Under 18s attending must be accompanied by an adult and supervised at all times. Tickets available from Sheila Signorio (475990) or from St Mary's Parish Office in Douglas (675509).
