29th Sunday of the Year

Do we compartmentalise our lives into things relating to our religion and things relating to our daily living? We have to give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, but is there any area of our life that does not belong to God?

World Mission Day

World Mission Day was first established by Pope Pius XI, beginning in October 1927. This year the Church celebrates the 100th World Mission Day on this Sunday, October 18th, 2026.

As the Church celebrates this day, Pope Leo XIV calls us to unity in Christ, love, and renewed missionary commitment "with joy and zeal in the Holy Spirit" in his first World Mission Sunday Message: "One in Christ, united in mission."

Mission belongs to the entire Church. Every baptised person is called to share God's love through prayer, generosity, and witness. Inspired by the dedication of missionaries around the world, we continue working together so that the message of Christ may reach every community, especially those most in need.

The second collection this weekend helps priests in the missions carry out their work to spread the Gospel, like Father and later Bishop Robert Prevost, OSA, in Peru.

"I would like to thank the Pontifical Mission Societies for their service to missionary cooperation, which I experienced with gratitude during my ministry in Peru."

- Pope Leo XIV (Jan 25, 2026)

Annual Pious List

The Pious List is compiled every year in October for deceased friends and family of the parish. It fulfills our Catholic obligation to pray for the dead and is a tangible reminder of the debt of gratitude and prayer we owe to those "who have gone before us marked with the Sign of Faith".

Envelopes are available at the back of Church for the November Pious List.

If anyone wants the names of loved ones who have died included in the Pious List, for whom Mass will be celebrated each week in November, please put their name of the deceased in the envelope together with your offering and return over the coming weeks.
