Don't Forget – Clocks Go Back!

The clocks go back one hour on Saturday night, so we all get that welcome extra hour in bed!

If you're reading this on Saturday evening, don't forget to put your clocks back before you go to bed.

And if you arrive at church on Sunday morning and wonder where everyone else is... you may be an hour early! Don't worry – enjoy the peace and quiet, perhaps say an extra prayer, and the rest of the parish will soon be joining you!

30th Sunday of the Year

Today's readings show us that the way we deal with people who can do us no favours is the litmus test of our faith. The stranger (foreigner), the widow and the orphan represent the disenfranchised of our society. Christ suggests that the only way we can follow him is to treat them as we would hope to be treated ourselves.

From the Archbishop

Fr John Hindley has requested, and I have granted, an extension to his time away from parish on leave at this time. I ask you to keep him in your prayers during this time and to respect his privacy.

I am grateful to Fr Leo Daley for continuing to provide pastoral and sacramental care during Fr John's absence and ensuring that the life and ministry of the parish continue as normal as possible.

During the month of November, I assure you of my prayers for Fr Brian O'Mahony and your deceased families and friends.

+John
Archbishop of Liverpool

Annual Pious List

The Pious List is compiled every year in October for deceased friends and family of the parish. It fulfills our Catholic obligation to pray for the dead and is a tangible reminder of the debt of gratitude and prayer we owe to those "who have gone before us marked with the Sign of Faith".

Envelopes are available at the back of Church for the November Pious List.

If anyone wants the names of loved ones who have died included in the Pious List, for whom Mass will be celebrated each week in November, please put their name of the deceased in the envelope together with your offering and return over the coming weeks.

Annual Fair-Trade Sale at the Cooil

The annual Trade Sale will take place at Cooil Methodist Chapel Hall, The Cooil Road, IM4 2AQ (just up from the Business Park Roundabout) from Thursday 29th to Saturday 31st October, from 10.00am to 6.30pm each day.

There will be a wide range of sustainably sourced goods, including Christmas cards, food and crafts. Your purchases help provide satisfying employment, dignity, fair wages and a better way of life for women and men in poorer countries.

Simple lunches will be served each day from 12 noon to 2.00pm, with hot drinks and cake available throughout the day for a donation. Everyone is warmly invited to come along and support the sale.

Cuppa and a chat

Tea or coffee available after the Sunday morning Masses. After 9.00am in the hall next door and after 11.00am in the Presbytery. All are welcome.

Archbishop's Pastoral Message on Assisted Dying

Following Royal Assent being given to the Assisted Dying Bill, Archbishop John Sherrington has written a pastoral message to Catholics across the Isle of Man, expressing his sadness and deep concern at this significant change in Manx law.

The Archbishop reminds us of the Church's teaching that human life is a precious gift from God, entrusted to us to protect and care for. Drawing on the parable of the Good Samaritan, he calls us to be deeply present to those who are sick or approaching the end of life: seeking to relieve suffering and surrounding them and their families with the best possible care, prayer, love and compassion.

He also shares concerns about the protection of vulnerable people and stresses the importance of freedom of conscience for doctors, nurses, pharmacists and other healthcare professionals, so that no one is compelled to participate in or facilitate assisted dying.

At this important time for our Island, Archbishop John asks us to pray for all who are sick and dying, their families and carers, and those who care for them. He concludes by asking the intercession of St Joseph, patron of the dying.

The Archbishop's full Pastoral Message can be read on the Archdiocese of Liverpool website: <https://www.liverpoolcatholic.org.uk/pastoral-letters/pastoral-message-to-catholics-on-the-isle-of-man>

Peel Coffee Morning
