33rd Sunday

God has given each one of us talents: particular skills or qualities that he expects us to use for his glory. As the Church draws towards the end of its year we are invited to reflect on how well we are making use of what we have been given. For no one has been given nothing. What has been entrusted to you and how are you using it?

Safeguarding Sunday - Love Protects

The Archdiocese of Liverpool is participating in Safeguarding Sunday. It is a time to reflect on the vital role we all have in safeguarding others and ourselves. We remember especially those victims of abuse. Safeguarding is the protection of those in our care. In 1 Corinthians 13, we are told that love protects. Safeguarding isn't 'paperwork' it is an act of love. For more information see the Christian charity thirtyone:eight safeguardingsunday.org

"Let us love not in word and speech, but in action and truth" (1John 3:18).

Caritas – Love in Action

Last weekend there was a gathering held in Liverpool, and attended by clergy and laity from the Island, where the Archbishop encouraged us to reflect in our parishes over these coming weeks upon the theme of CARITAS. This Latin word can be translated in many ways, perhaps the one that springs immediately to mind is CHARITY – but it might be more helpful to think of it as 'love in action'. This may indeed entail a financial or material care of others and the world around us, but equally it might be the generous use of our time and talents for the service of the needs of others.

Now there are many ways in which we express our LOVE IN ACTION each and every day…. from knocking on the door of an elderly neighbour just to check they are OK or need anything from the shop to the work of our Extra-ordinary Ministers of Holy Communion sharing the gift of the Holy Eucharist with the housebound, to the work of the Foodbank or the SVP in noticing and responding to the needs of individuals and families in what are increasingly difficult circumstances.

All of this is LOVE IN ACTION – it is fundamentally a response to the God who loved us first and who in Jesus gives us an example of how to deepen and strengthen our FAITH, HOPE and LOVE in our world today.

Over the coming weeks we will highlight various ways in which we already engage in this work of CARITAS …. but there are always fresh expressions which suggest themselves!
