Christ the King

The Church's liturgical year ends with the promise that no matter how far we may wander from God he will never abandon us. Like a shepherd he is able to tend to our needs, to bind us up and to restore us to health, feeding us on the pasture of his word and sacraments. There is nothing we shall want.

Something to Pray about

We can join Pope Leo XIV in his prayer intentions for the month of November:

Pray that wealth be used for the common good, avoiding selfishness and supporting solidarity.

We also pray for the gift of peace in our troubled world, and for all who work to bring healing, reconciliation and hope.
